Departmental Highlights:

- The City has been divided into two (2) Districts, North and South. The North District is under the command of Lt. David Tilley and the South District is under the command of Lt. Jerry Jolly.
- Officer Misty Hartwell will be presenting the GREAT, Gang Resistance Education and Training, program in our schools this upcoming year.
- Two new School Resource Officers will be patrolling the halls of Thomasville Middle and High schools during the upcoming year. Officer Jason Rowe will be assigned to Thomasville Middle and Officer Scott Adams will be assigned to Thomasville High.
- The school year started off well. School Resource Officers, Patrol Officers and Traffic Safety Officers were assigned to each of the school in the City for the first two days to monitor traffic flow and speed conditions around the schools. East Davidson changed its drop-off and pick up routes, presented some interesting times but has seemed to wine down.
- Lt. Kim Sebastian has been nominated for 2011 NC Law Enforcement Woman of the Year.
- I will be giving a presentation on Implementing Crime Analysis in our Agency at the National Institute of Justice in Maryland during the month of September.
- We will be making adjustments to the schedule for Field Operations to address court changes, training, etc.
- Our three (3) new hires have begun Field Training. The program has been restructured, this part of an on-going process. Also, we have three (3) new Reserve Officers joining our ranks..
- Several arrests have been made in connection with various car break-ins around the City.
- During August I pulled our tasers and had Lt. Kattner perform an inspection of all our tasers as well as reviewed its application and policy with the officers who have them issued
- CMPD has sent a written request for assistance during the Democratic National Convention in 2012. Several have expressed interest in assisting, we will be working out a schedule and provide any assistance that we can.
- Lt. Raymond Widener will be serving as an assessor for a promotional process in Portsmouth, VA.
- We have enhanced our excess to CAD and mapping. The District Commanders now have excess and can have close to real time call data for their review.
